Weekly Reflection

by Deacon Michael Holley

Lent is a time for individual reflection and repentance, a time to draw closer to Jesus Christ in both our thoughts and actions. This can be a struggle given all of the demands placed on us by a modern secular society. It seems like every part of our daily lives is competing for our attention and moving our focus away from Jesus. A young seminarian, who is now a priest in our diocese, once told me that “The way of the cross can be difficult.” There is much truth and wisdom in his statement. But deepening our relationship with Jesus is worth the struggle. As we get closer to Good Friday, we must always keep in mind that Jesus died for our sins so that we may be forgiven, and so that we may be reconciled with the Father. Saint Paul wrote to the Corinthians, “For our sake he made himself to be sin who did not know sin so that we might become the righteousness of God in him.”

As we near the end of Lent, now is a good time to pause and take stock of our Lenten journey. Let’s each take time this weekend to reflect on how our Lenten sacrifices of almsgiving, fasting, and prayer have brought us closer to our Lord.

Pontifical Good Friday Collection

Pope Francis has asked our parish to support the Pontifical Good Friday Collection, which helps Christians in the Holy Land.

Your support helps the church minister in parishes, provide Catholic schools and offer religious education. The Pontifical Good Friday Collection also helps to preserve the sacred shrines.

The wars, unrest and instability have been especially hard on Christians. In these times of crisis, the Pontifical Good Friday Collection provides humanitarian aid to refugees. When you contribute to the Pontifical Good Friday Collection, you become an instrument of peace and join with Catholics around the world in solidarity with the Church in the Holy Land.

Please be generous! For more information about Christians in the Holy Land, visit www.myfranciscan.org/good-friday.

FLU SEASON The California Dept of Public Health (CDPH)

has reported that the incidence of flu and flu-like illnesses is widespread and has reached a level requiring that we enact preventive measures to mitigate the possibility of infection at Mass. In order to protect the health & well-being of everyone, Bishop Soto issues the following directives:

- The use of the Communion cup is suspended temporarily.
- Receive the Body of Christ in the hand (although receiving on the tongue is permitted)
- Do not shake hands. Offer the Sign of Peace to those around you with a simple nod, saying “Peace be with you.”
- Do not hold hands during the Our Father.
- Extraordinary ministers of Holy Communion are reminded to cleanse their hands with an alcohol-based antiseptic before and after administering Holy Communion. This also applies to ministers who take Communion to the home-bound.

The obligation to attend Mass on Sunday and other Holy Days does not apply to those who are sick. If you are sick, stay home and take of yourself. Thank you for your patience & understanding during this time. And pray for those who are sick. The administration of Holy Communion in both kinds will resume as soon as the Bishop deems it safe and prudent to do so.

from Most Rev Jaime Soto, Bishop of Sacramento

Instead of flowers, if you would like to make a monetary donation, please use the envelopes at the entrances to the Church and place it in the collection basket. Thank you for your donation.
