FROM OUR PASTOR, FATHER FRANCIS

In our first reading, from the Acts of the Apostles, we see Peter standing up and challenging the Jewish leaders who crucified our Lord. He says: “You denied the Holy and Righteous One and asked for a murderer to be released to you. “In other words, they chose the world over Christ. Sadly, there are many Catholics who would rather follow the teachings of the secular world, rather than those of the Lord Jesus. They have no problem trading Him for carnal ideas.

A couple weeks ago the Vatican reiterated the orthodox and traditional teaching that marriage is between one man and one woman, and as a result, the Church cannot bless “same sex unions.” Many Catholics, both laity and clergy, were upset and even outraged at this upholding of the Church’s authentic teaching regarding marriage. Sadly, they would rather choose the unholy and perverted secular “gospel” as opposed to serving God and following Jesus Christ with their whole hearts, bodies, minds and souls. We must remember that in the very first centuries of the Church, when people were baptized, they not only laid down their worldly goods and their material possessions, but more importantly, they surrendered their hearts and their minds to follow Jesus and His commandments without reservation. Regretfully today many Christians and Catholics want to force secular ideas and political expediency upon Christ and His Church. They want the Church to change and accept their perverted lifestyles. The reality is that if they want real change then they must do what the Lord has called all of us to do — repent. We must have a change of heart, not a change of theology. Real change only occurs when we change our hearts and minds to follow the Lord Jesus and all His commandments —unreservedly.

Activity of the week Discuss how it is sometimes hard to see Jesus' presence in certain situations that occur in our world. Give examples of specific situations. In what way could family members see Jesus' presence in similar situations in the future?

Second Collection next week we will take up the Catholic Home Missions Appeal. Today, over 40% of dioceses in the United States and its territories are unable to fund the essential pastoral work their communities need. Your support of this appeal helps them meet these faith formation and sacramental needs. Please prayerfully consider how you can support this appeal. More information can be found at www.usccb.org/home-missions. To donate online, <https://www.scd.org/homemissions>

~SPIRITUAL CORNER~

Feast Of Faith*The Second Reading

The Liturgy of the Word generally follows a consistent pattern of three readings and a psalm. The second reading is always taken from one of the New Testament epistles or the book of Revelation, and generally is not intentionally aligned with either the Gospel or the first reading.

Where would we be without these letters in which great saints and apostles like Paul, Peter, James, and John share their wisdom and pastoral good sense with the early Christian communities? It is in these letters, even more than in the Gospel narratives, that we learn what it means to be church: to live with each other, in the world yet not of the world, in these days after the Lord’s resurrection. Each New Testament letter was written by a particular leader for a particular community at a particular time. We are reminded of this at the beginning of the proclamation—“A reading from the letter of Saint Paul to the Ephesians,” or the Corinthians, or the Thessalonians. These texts were shaped by their particular historical and cultural context, but at the same time, through the liturgy, these letters are written to us, here, today. They speak to the realities of Christian living no matter where—or when—we live. They are truly “the word of the Lord” for us.
