Month of Saint Joseph

As we draw near to the end of Lent, today's Gospel clearly has Jesus' passion and death in view. That's why John gives us the detail about Lazarus' sister,

Questions of the Week Theme: New life in Christ Jesus

Question for Children: How do your actions show that you put your faith and trust in Jesus?

Question for Youth: Lazarus received a second chance at life through Jesus. How have you experienced second chances in your own life?

Question for Adults: The death from which we are called is healing from those things which bind us and hold us back: memories, fears, rejection, or other such things. What binds you? What keeps you from fully being your own most true self in Christ? <https://lifelongcatechesis.osv.com/>

Sunday Readings and Backgrounds Fifth Sunday of Lent

Reading I : Ezekiel 37:12-14 I will put my spirit in you.

- The reading from Ezekiel is part of a longer vision of the movement from death to new life.
- Ezekiel was preaching to the exiles in Babylon who were convinced that as a people, they were dead.
- Ezekiel understood that the power of life belonged to God alone.

Reading II : Romans 8:8-11 You are in the Spirit.

- In the second reading, Paul stresses that life in the Spirit is the true life that Jesus came to bring.
- The death of Jesus led to the gift of everlasting life for those who believe in him.
- The Spirit of God, who raised Jesus from the dead, dwells in believers and will also bring their death-bound bodies to life.

Gospel : John 11:1-45 I am the resurrection and the life.

- The story of Lazarus is a drama that plays between two understandings of life and death.
- Jesus announces that he himself is the Resurrection. Lazarus, though raised, will die again. This is different from the Resurrection of Christ.
- Lazarus rises again to this present earthly life. This miracle is a sign of the greatest miracle of all, resurrection.

The Crescendo Of John’s Gospel The Gospel readings of the past several weeks form a sort of “crescendo” as they build in intensity toward the capstone of our Lenten season: Holy Week. Jesus tells the woman at the well the secrets of her life, secrets he could not, should not have known, and promises her the never-ending salvation of his living waters. The man blind from birth has light restored to his eyes, as Jesus the Light from Light overcomes the man’s ailment as a sign of removing the sin that those around him believed was in him. Today Jesus answers Martha’s critique of his late arrival by informing her that Lazarus has died for the same reason the man had been born blind: that God might be given glory for being the light and life of the world. We have been following the road to Jesus’ destiny that John’s Gospel has been tracing for us: to the place where the Father would be given the ultimate glory in his passion, death, and resurrection. *Copyright © 2007, World Library Publications.
